If your child tells you something happened

1. Stay calm. Thank them for telling you.
 2. Do not blame or punish them for asking for help.
 3. Do not pay, reply to threats, or send more pictures.
 4. Preserve messages, usernames and profile links. Do not save, download, or forward sexual images of minors.
 5. Report the account in the app and contact CyberTipline or police as appropriate.
 6. Check in again. Watch for distress; use 988 for crisis support.
- If you are unsure which police agency to contact, use your county dispatch center's non-emergency number.
